FACULTY

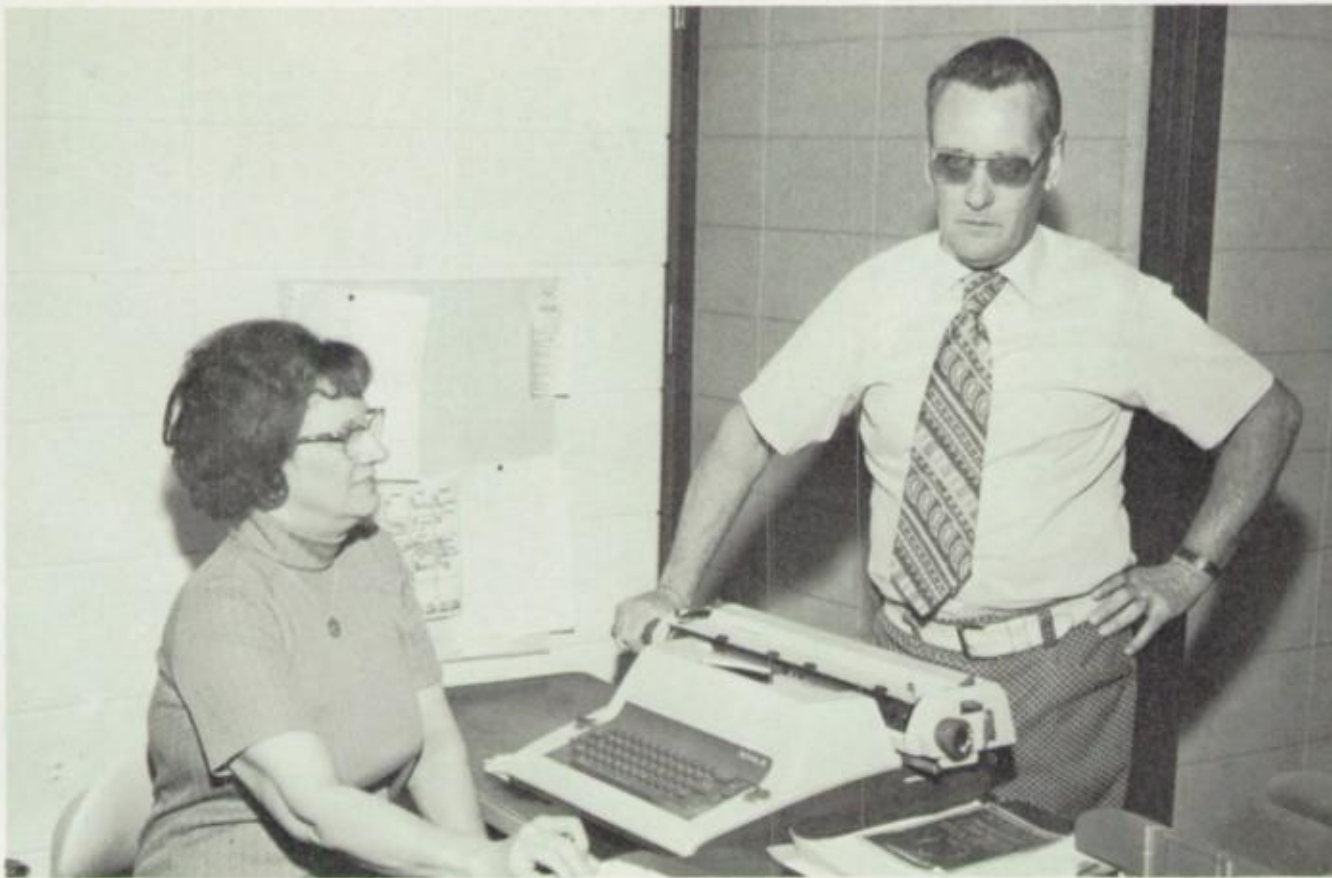

“All Visitors Will Please Report to the Main Office”

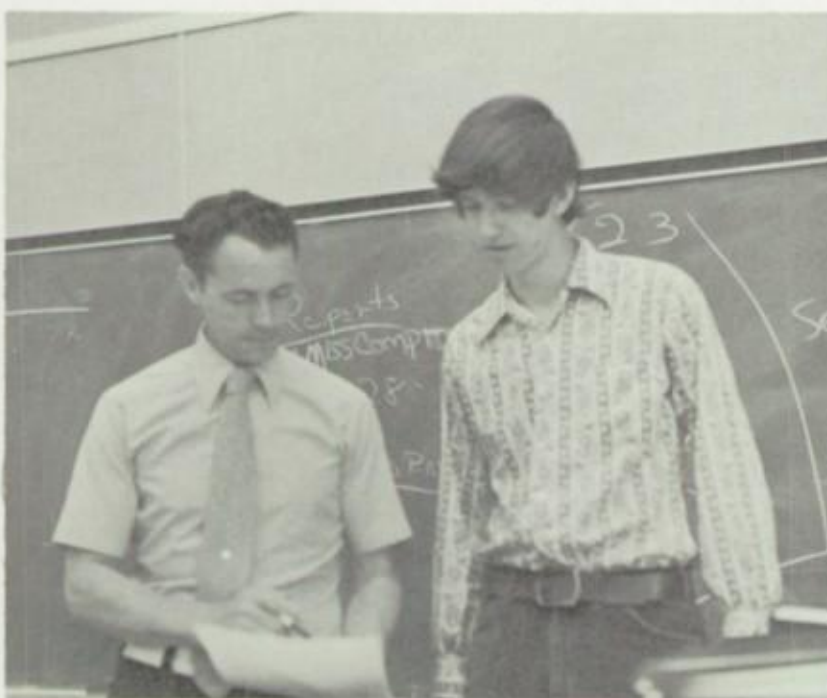

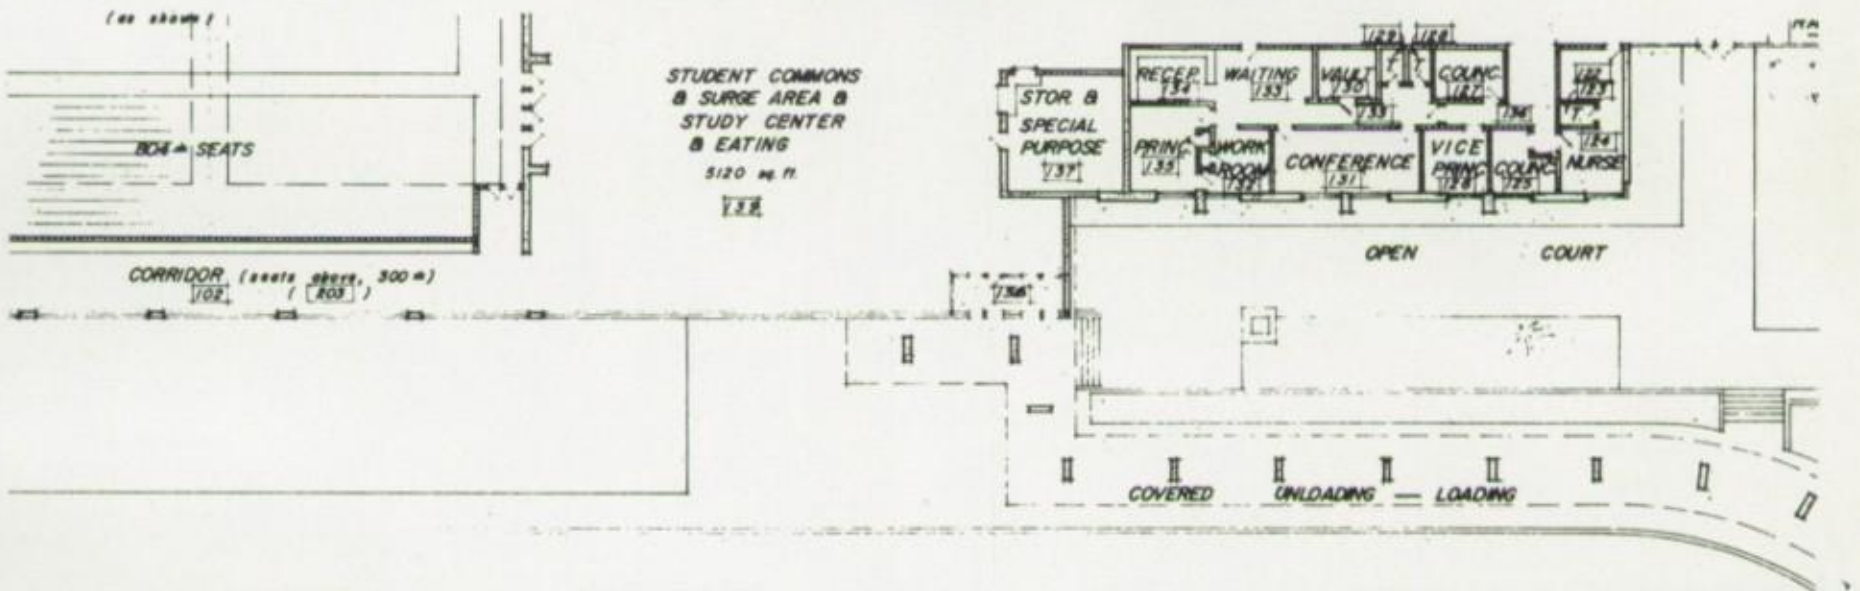

Meet the staff and faculty members of Whitko High School as they work and relax. Make your first call at the reception desk on an informal tour through the building. Mr. Irwin is filling in at the switchboard as Mrs. Rae is checking the revolving file to see if Don Keel is really in Mr. Helm's 4th period class. Did you say 4th period? Why, that's lunch hour. All of it?

Earlier in the morning Mr. Sands was coping bravely with a long line of students waiting to get their blue passes back to class. Did these boys just arrive? Maurice Morrison thinks his friend's elaborate explanation is very funny, but just wait your turn, Maurice. How will you explain? Mr. Sands has heard them all.

Mrs. Likens checks a record book for Mr. Reed--date April 16, 1974. It wasn't until May 27th that she let us know that she wouldn't be with us in that office every day next year. Best wishes for many pleasant retirement years, Mrs. Likens!

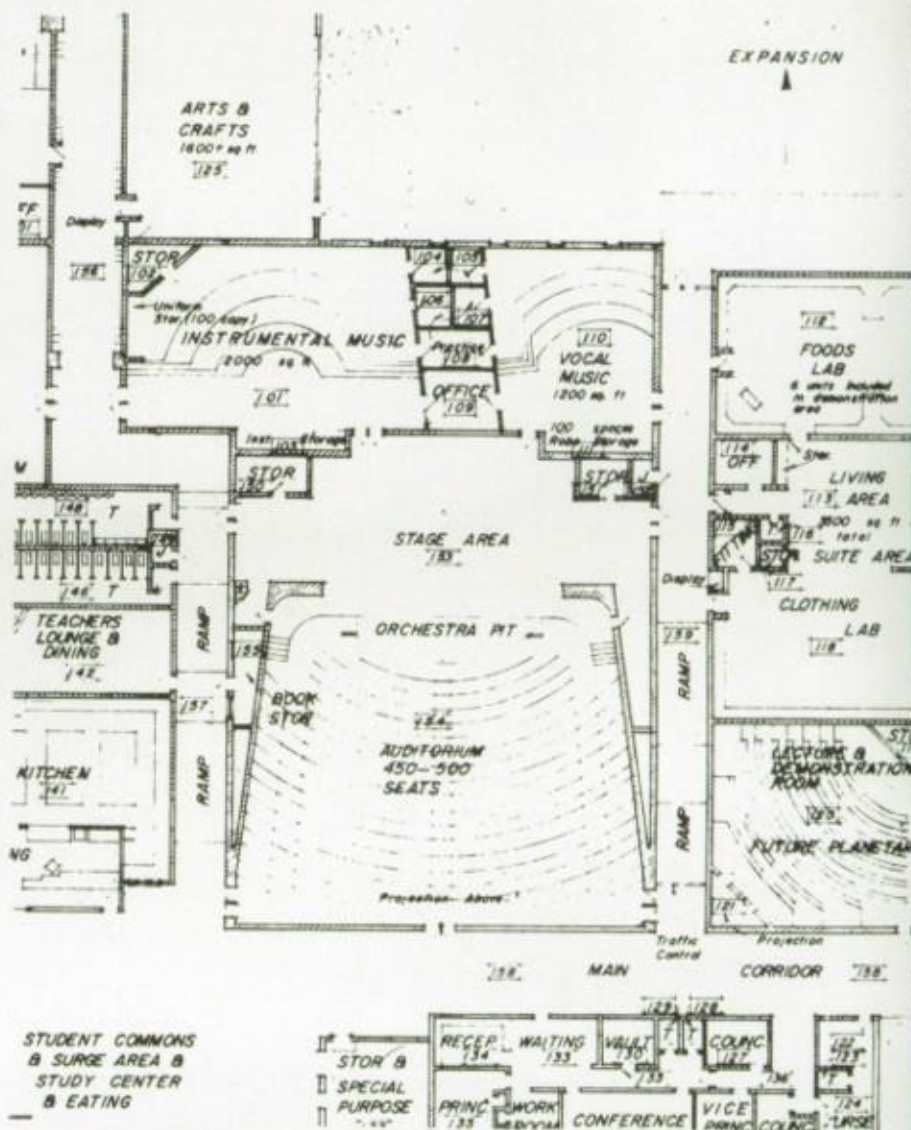

On the way we caught Mr. Patrick in the Lecture Room and Mr. Holmes duplicating a government exam.

Second period chorus means hard work for Mr. Kennedy, the chorus members, Becky Menzie and Cerese Kessie, accompanists, all working together.

Then Visit "C" Wing

And Mr. Dilling and Mr. Faulkner are also "working" hard-- at the continuing chess game!

Clothing and Food Labs, Music Rooms and Lounge

Mr. Marsh has just finished 7th period band practice. Is that why he looks so satisfied and happy?

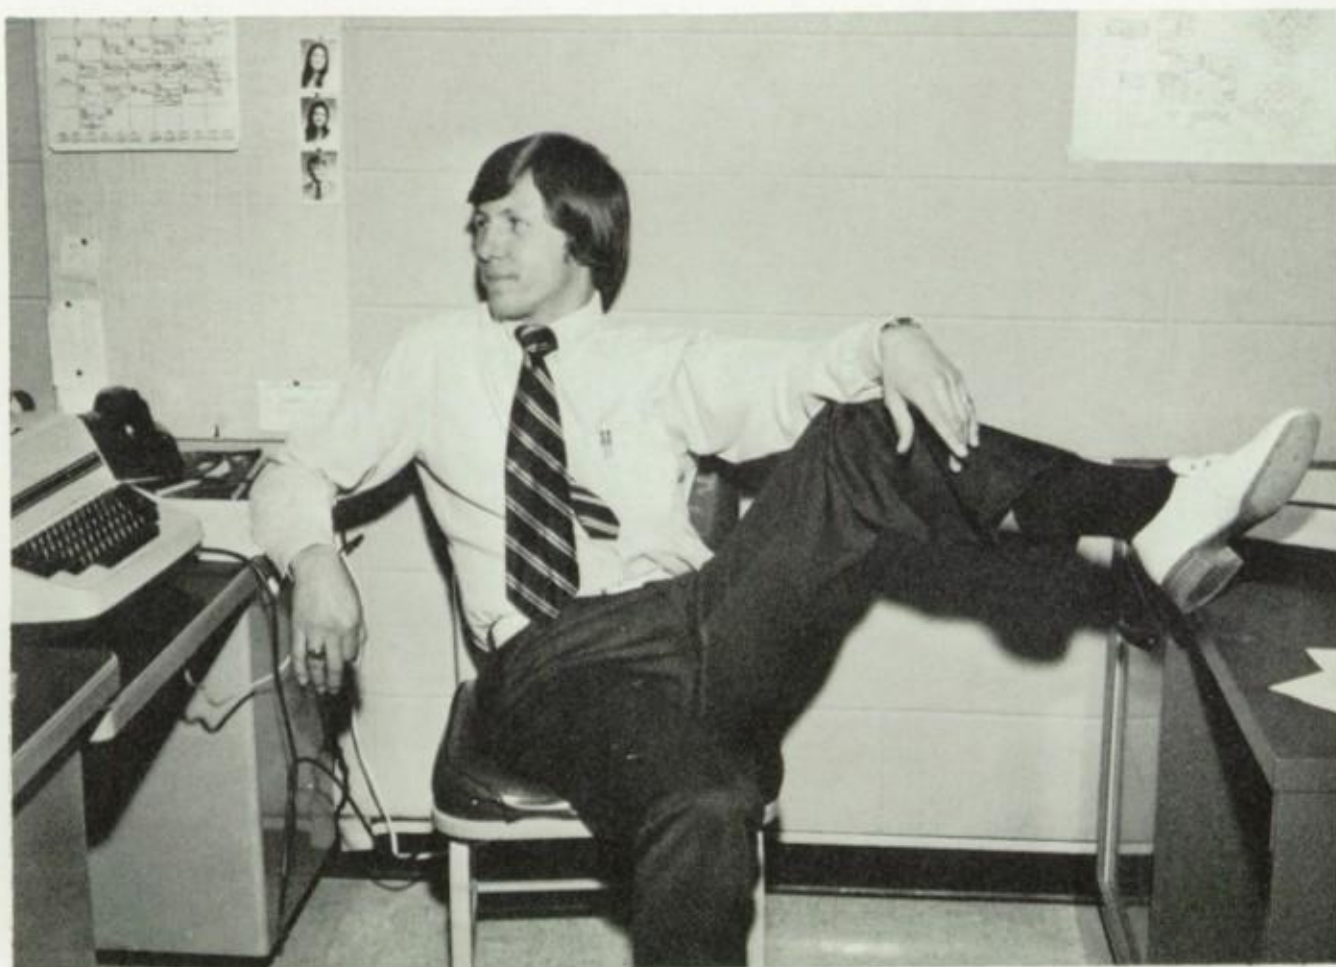

Mrs. Wendell shows her glass collection to Mrs. Moe--who is retiring and won't be with us next year--not regularly, at least.

Are these teachers always this happy? It must have been a good joke for Mr. Marsh, Mr. Kennedy, Mrs. King, Miss Thompson, Mr. Irwin, Mr. Jensen (student teacher) and Mr. Dilling. We thought a coffee break at the round table was for serious discussion.

Return Via the Office

Mr. Mahnensmith won't be around in the '74-'75 school year to coach football--or to supervise the typing, telephone or intercom system in the office, so perhaps he can relax. Seriously, however, we all, students, staff, and faculty, wish him all the best for his life and work in a new place.

... at Lunch Time ...

Take your place in the south line for the cafeteria if you want Mr. McManama to punch your ticket. At least, that is what Mike Calhoun--no, he's holding on to his money!--and Bob Haywood are doing.

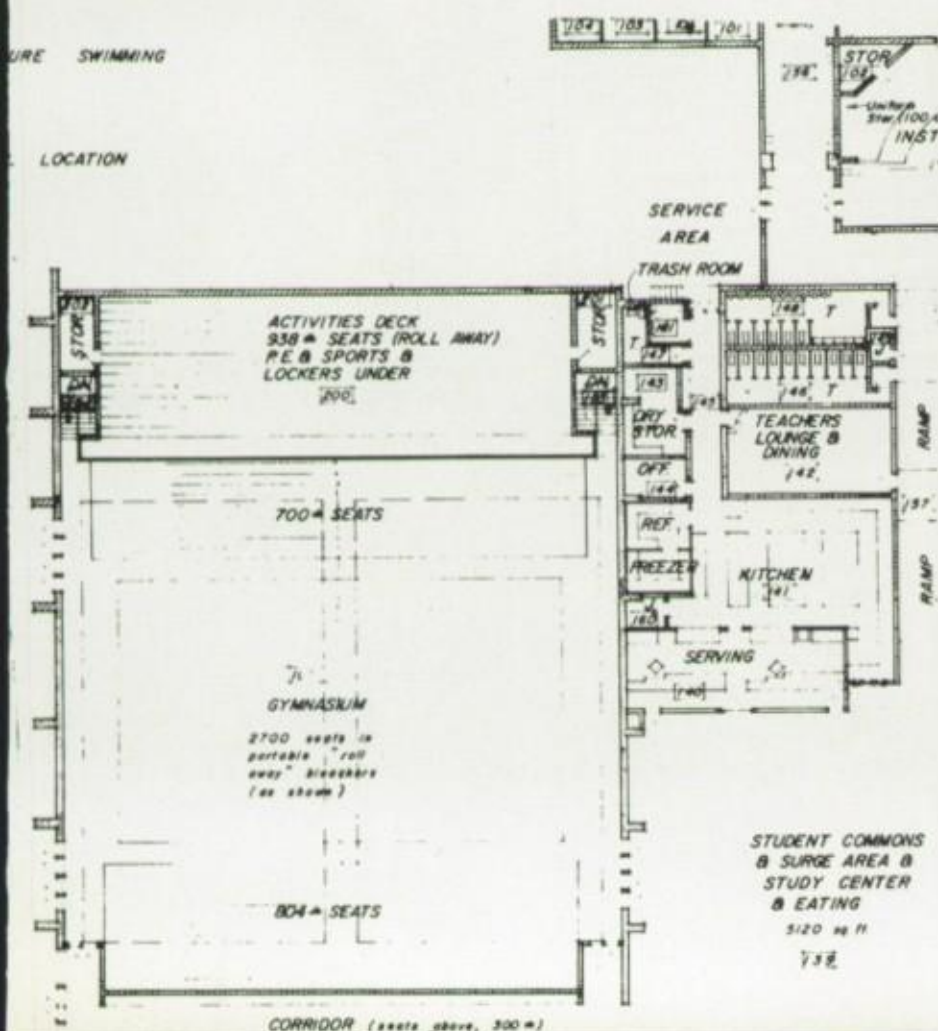

Far Right: Is Mr. Carroll just showing Miss Compton how to handle a dumbbell, or is he talking about some of the new equipment in the gym--this year, that is? If so, how does he get such an admiring audience? There must be some reason behind it all.

Lined up to start that quick cafeteria service: Mrs. Austin; Mrs. Warner; Mrs. Thomas; Mrs. Striggle; and our efficient manager, Mrs. Earnhart. It looks like hamburger, fruit, rice and a cookie. Right?

Through Cafeteria & to Gym

Make Stops in "D" Wing

Is Mrs. Kaye Smith visiting the boiler room for counseling by Mr. Egner? Or for coffee? Or what is it they do down there?

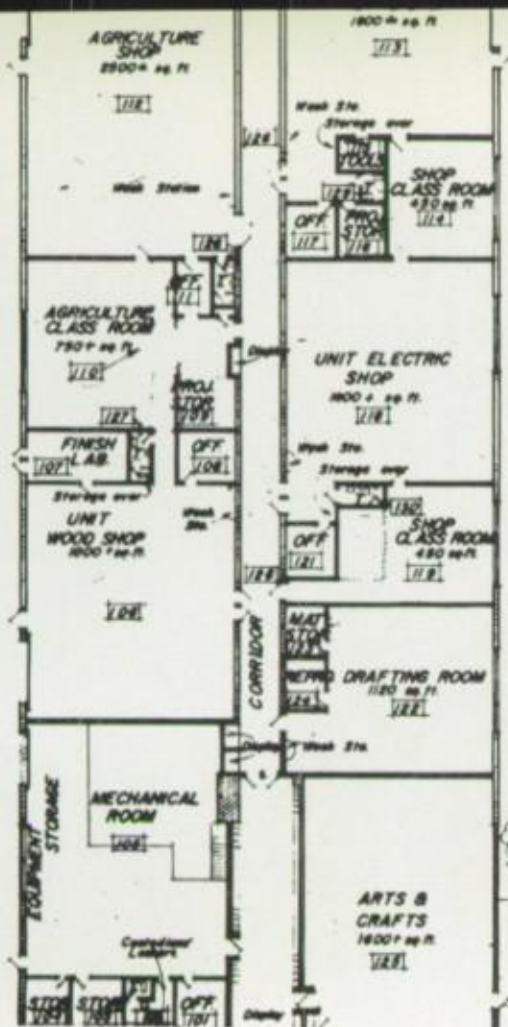

Mr. McVay and Mr. Roberts must have a hard time scheduling all those FFA field trips, tractor pulls, contests and other activities that keep so many members occupied--out of class, that is.

Although Mrs. Hess is usually busy in Upper "A" Wing, she did find time to get down to "D" Wing to "help" her brother, Mr. Howard, a student teacher in the agriculture department, use the overhead projector.

Take the Ramp to Upper "A"

Stop into the large typing room to inspect the wonderful new duplicator with Mrs. Boyer and Mr. Langohr. Then have them show you the other recently acquired equipment in this department.

Or, if you like wildlife, play with Mr. Forsberg's white mice, as Laura Feerster seems to enjoy doing. He has other pets too, at school and at home--like snakes.

It's possible to catch Mrs. Blanchard when she has no duties in Upper "A" if you know where to look. Sneak down to "D" Wing at the right time; you'll find her.

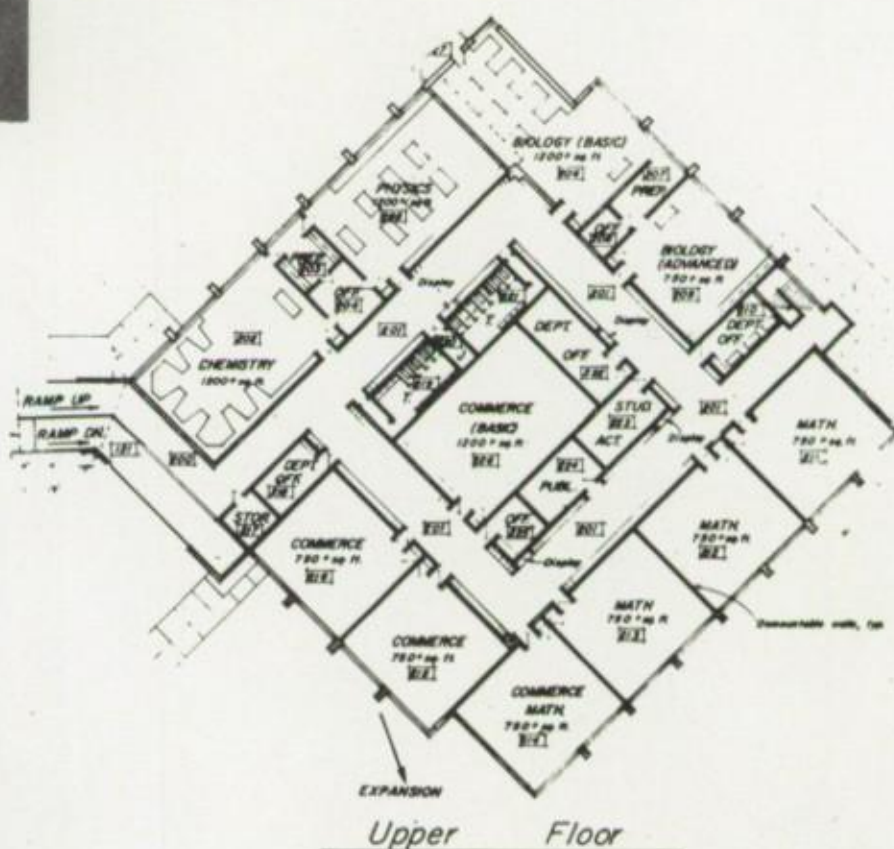

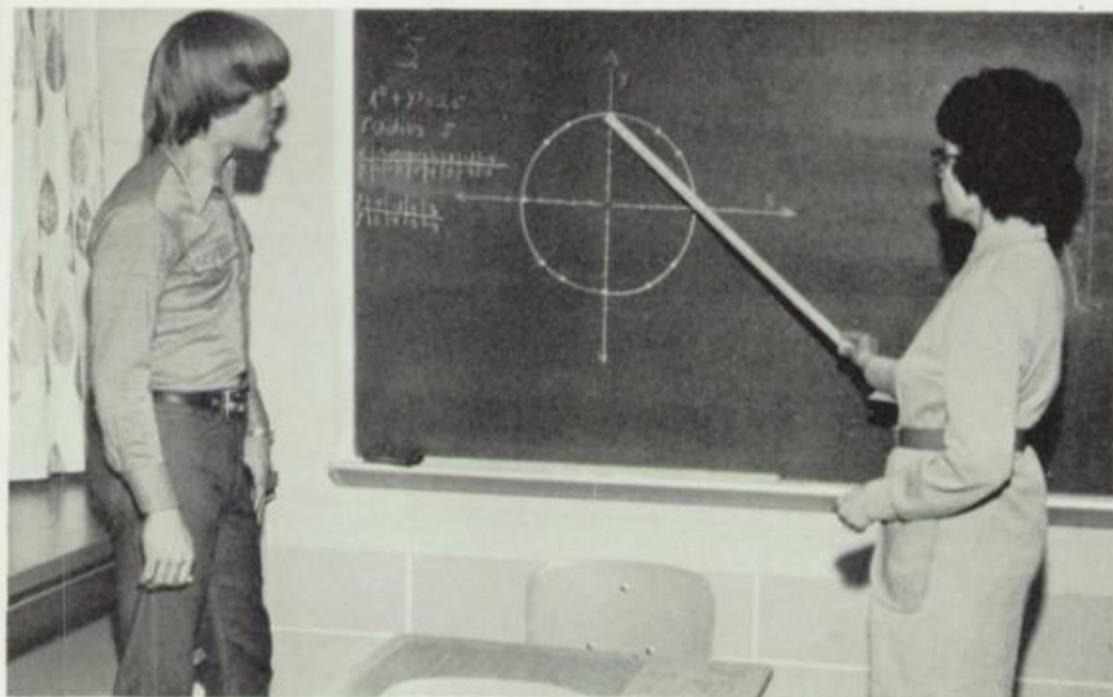

We caught Miss Thompson in her seventh period Personal Typing class. Haven't they all learned the keyboard by this time, Miss T? Oh, it's harder to do by the time seventh period rolls around. They're tired!

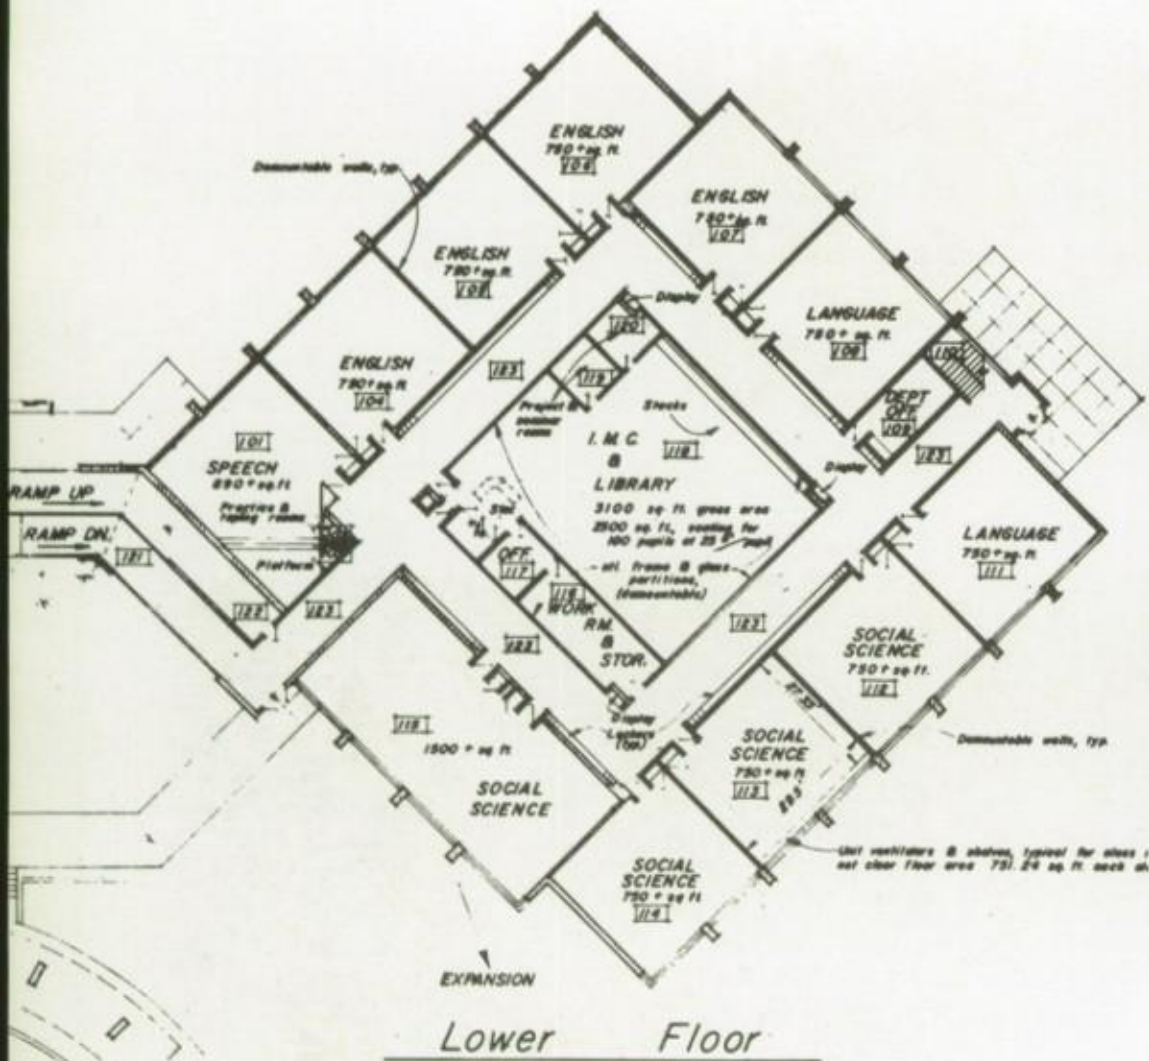

Mr. Hunt has just come down the ramp, preparing to leave by the nearest exit--here.

The problem seems to have something to do with radius as Mrs. Dun explains it to Ken Carlin.

or Ramp Down to Lower "A"

Miss Carlton does sometimes relax behind her desk. At least we caught her there.

Sue Verba reviews her Spanish with Mr. Kidd.

An exam, Mrs. Boley?

The library is a busy place with Mrs. Germann at the card catalog and Mrs. Kessie behind the charging desk.

Note: If you missed Mrs. King on your tour of Lower "A", look on page 7 and you'll see where she spends her time.

It looks as though Mrs. Lenwell may be getting ready to grade those themes piled on her desk.

Below, from left, leaving the building from Lower "A", with typical "burdens".

Mr. Helm

Mrs. Kessie

Mr. Blaettner

Be careful John. Miss T. has a thousand eyes.

Colour My World

Are you ready to eat Ron?

It looks like Andy and Twyla are having a good time.

Where's Ed at, Deb?

As time goes on
I realize
Just what you mean to me.
And now, now that you're near,
Promise your love
That I've waited to share,
And dream
Of our moments together.
Colour my world
With hopes of loving you.

Lorie, are you afraid that Matt is going to get away?

Paul, surely it's not as bad as all that.

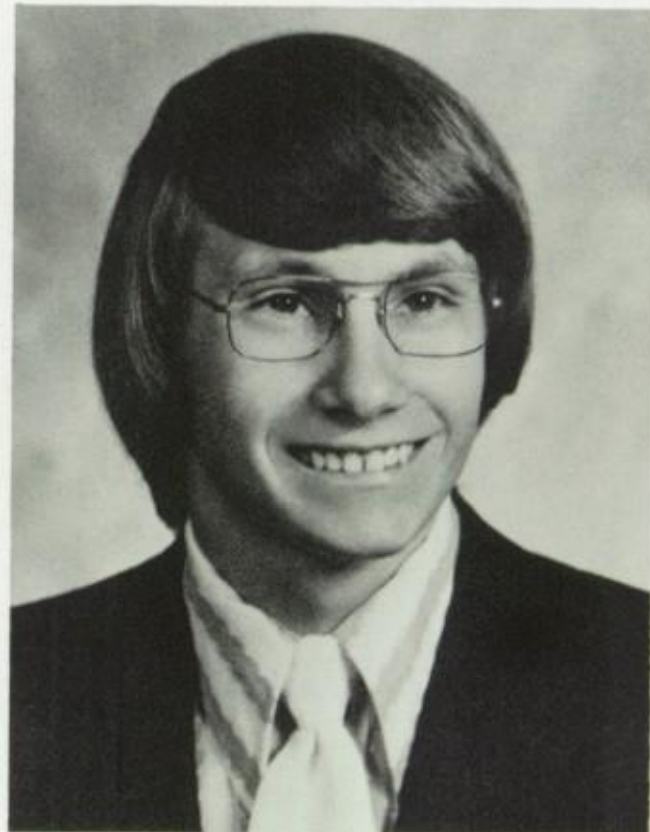

Mrs. Ray and Miss T. sure look pretty.

Sherri, did you just stick Ken, or did he get his first whiff of a carnation?

In Memoriam

In memory of Dola Hatton, who was killed in an auto - train accident on November 12, 1973. He was a friend to all and will remain in the memories of many.

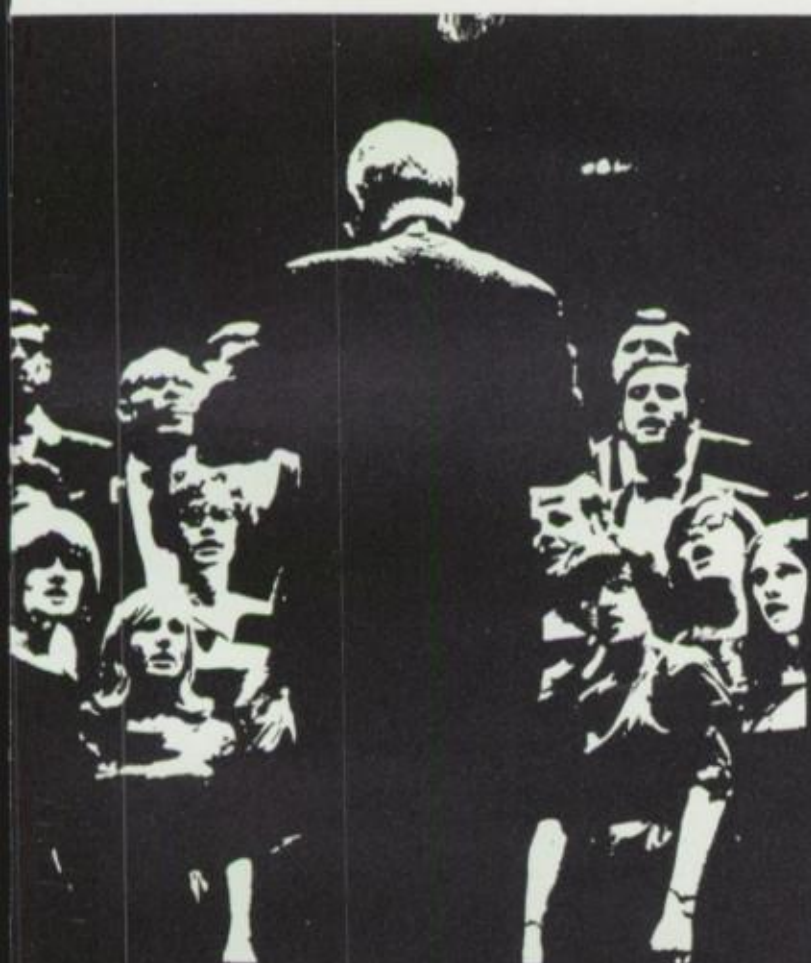

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Two New Groups at Whitko

Whitko High School's very first radio staff provided Saturday afternoon entertainment for the listening area over Columbia City radio station WFDT during the past season. WHITKO HIGH SCHOOL IN REVIEW broadcast its first program on Saturday, February 9th and throughout the year reported weekly on happenings at Whitko, along with playing pop tunes for a fine program of one hour's duration.

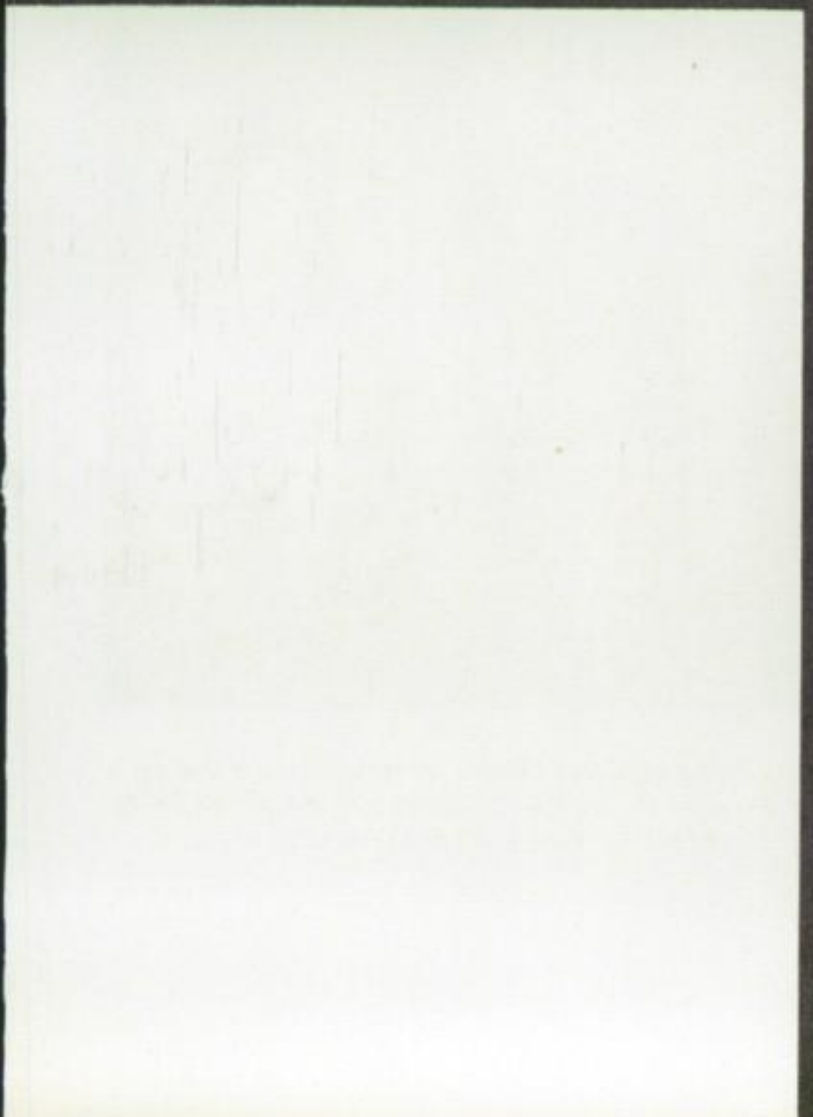

Host Casey Rupert was aided by the hard-working staff who found time each week to put together news, sports, and features of the week.

Also to raise money, but for Muscular Dystrophy was a sale of decorative candles. For fun a variety show was organized, composed of about a dozen acts, with all students eligible. This was enjoyed at a school assembly during April.

National Honor Society

New inductees this year in the N.H.S. were honored at a March 12 ceremony in the high school auditorium, followed by a reception in the commons to which parents and guests were escorted by the inductees. Twenty - seven new seniors, juniors and sophomores received pins and/or certificates.

Talkin' Wildcats

During the past year, the speech team participated in 16 tournaments and as a team placed in the top 5 five times.

Their record:

3 at Whitko

3 at Wawasee

5 at the CIFL Conference

2 at Southwood

4 at the Sectionals

Fourty - five individual ribbons were won, including six first place ribbons.

Nineteen members of the speech team are members of the National Forensic League (NFL).

Whitko had fourth place in the Sectionals with three alternates. We had one Regional winner with one alternate, and Janet Adams went on to place in the Semi - State finalists.

Talkin' Wildcats say good-bye to fellow member, Craig Ingram, at a going away party, with thumbs up!!!

Thespians Perform . . .

This year has marked a great forward advancement for the Thespian, as far as professionalism is concerned. We've created sets, costumes, make-up, and interest among the students for the theater arts. Our plays have become more polished and more enjoyable to the audience because of Miss Carlton's efforts as a director.

We haven't been able to do as much as we would have liked to do this year in productions, but we have built up the department so perhaps that will be less work for the future Thespian members. Almost every member has given time and effort to the Thespians, and they all deserve great credit for contributing so freely.

Written for the 1974 Spectrum by Thespian president: Rob Mishler; Other officers include; Vice pres. Beckie Menzi; Treasurer, Patty Yarnell; Secretary, Cheryl Cristoffel; Sponsor, Miss Loretta Carlton.

Posed on the ramp as they dressed for formal concerts: girls in pastel gowns of various shades and the boys wearing coats with their shirts and ties.

This year the choir did something new: a Christmas Dinner Concert, two nights. Choir members sold tickets, served the meal, and provided the entertainment for this festive holiday occasion. The choir also performed three other concerts which were enjoyed by many students and guests alike.

Whitko Football. What can I answer if someone asks a question about it? We didn't have a great season. Our record has very few victories, and 1973-74 was our first year for a varsity team. Now that sounds pessimistic, but it is all true. Our men at the grid, however, are strong, smart, and hard working. They tried very bravely to bring victory to Whitko.

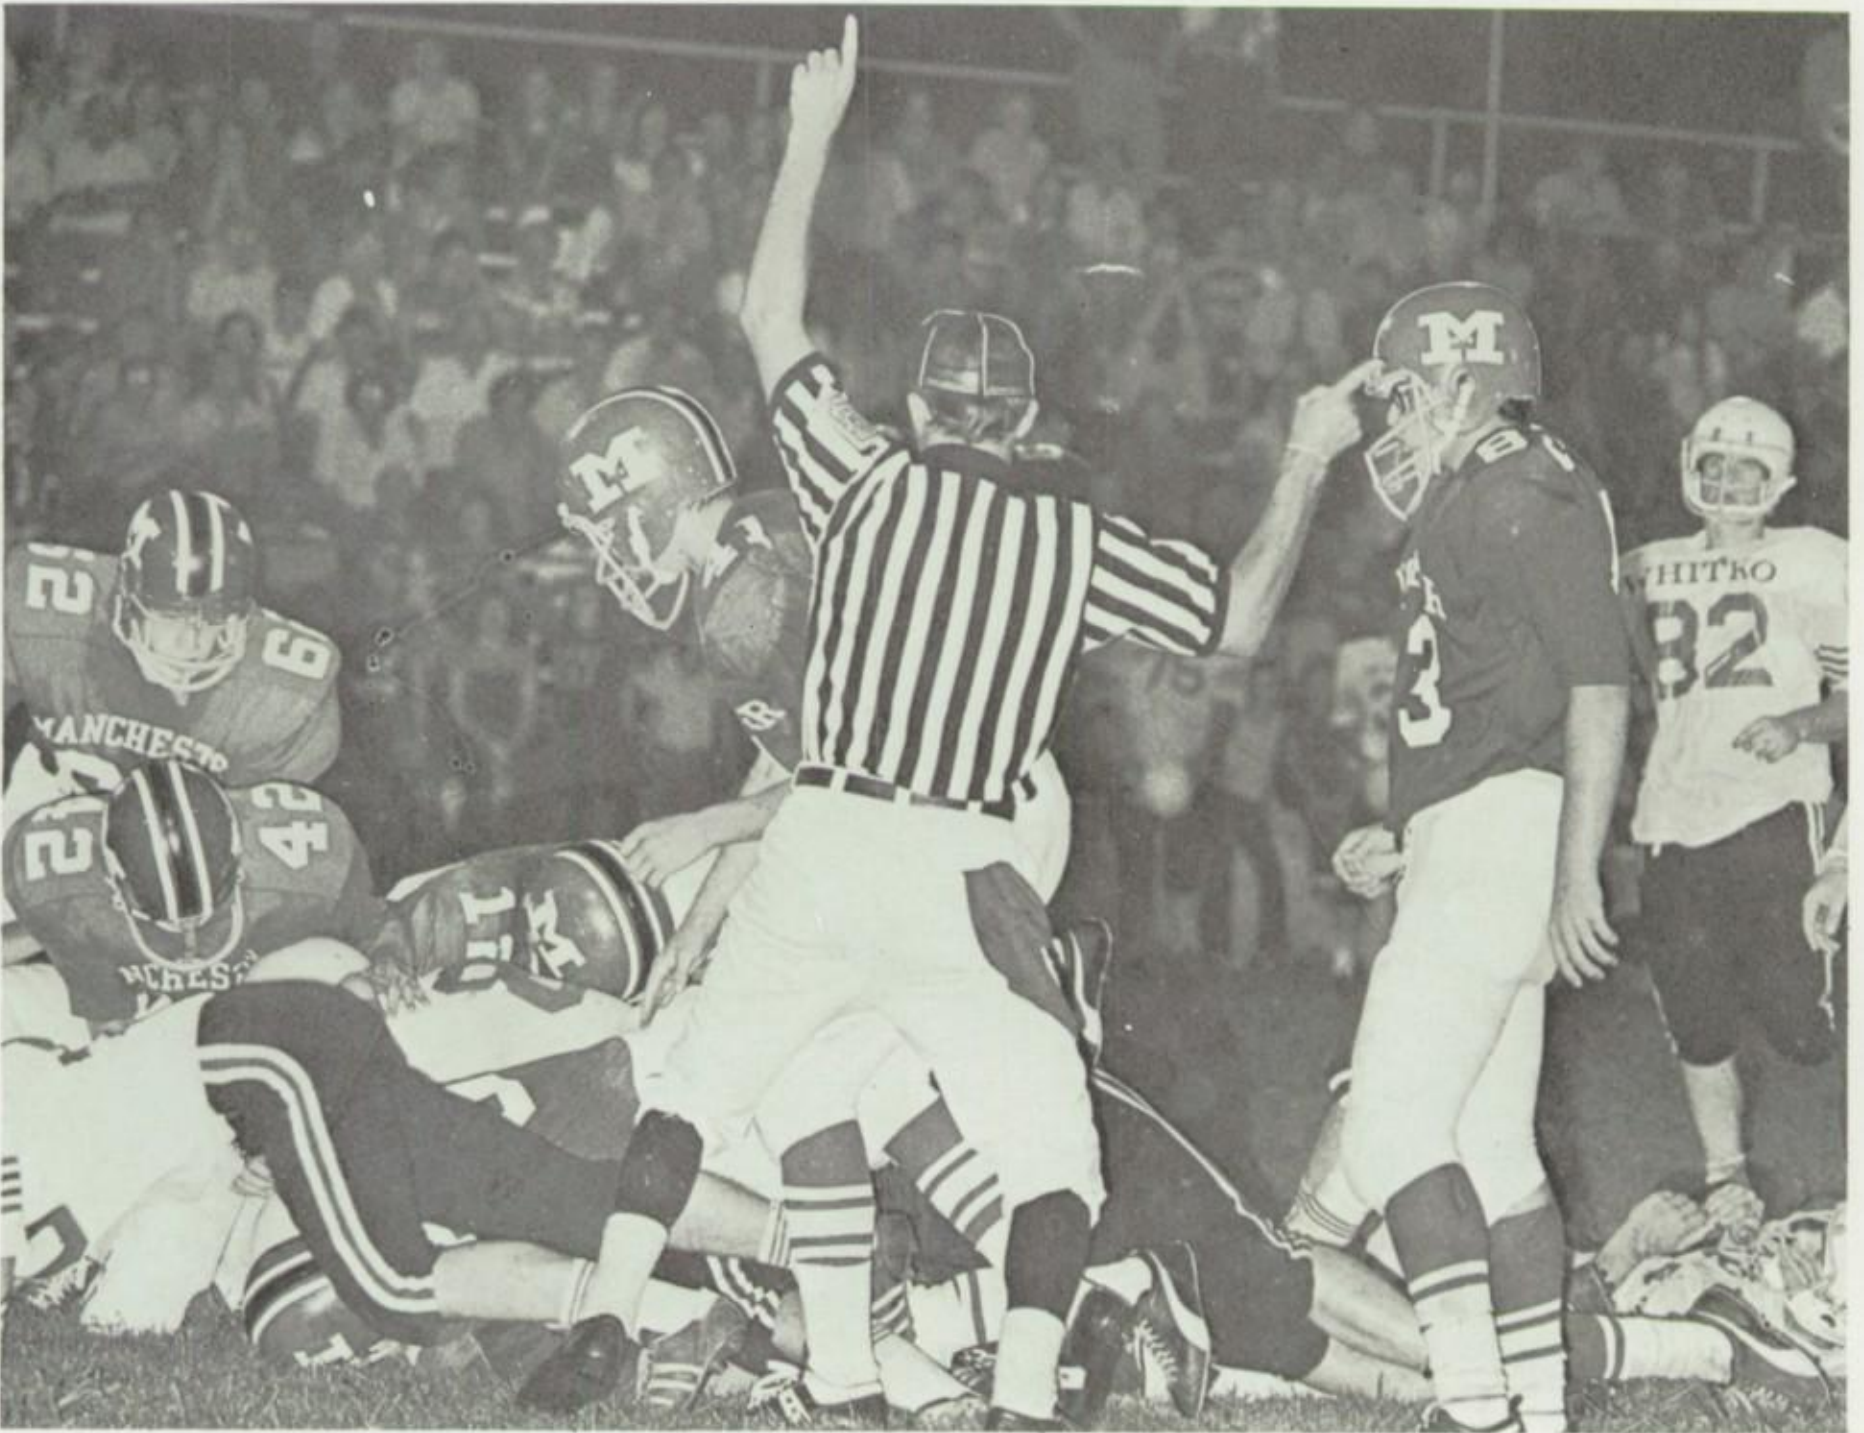

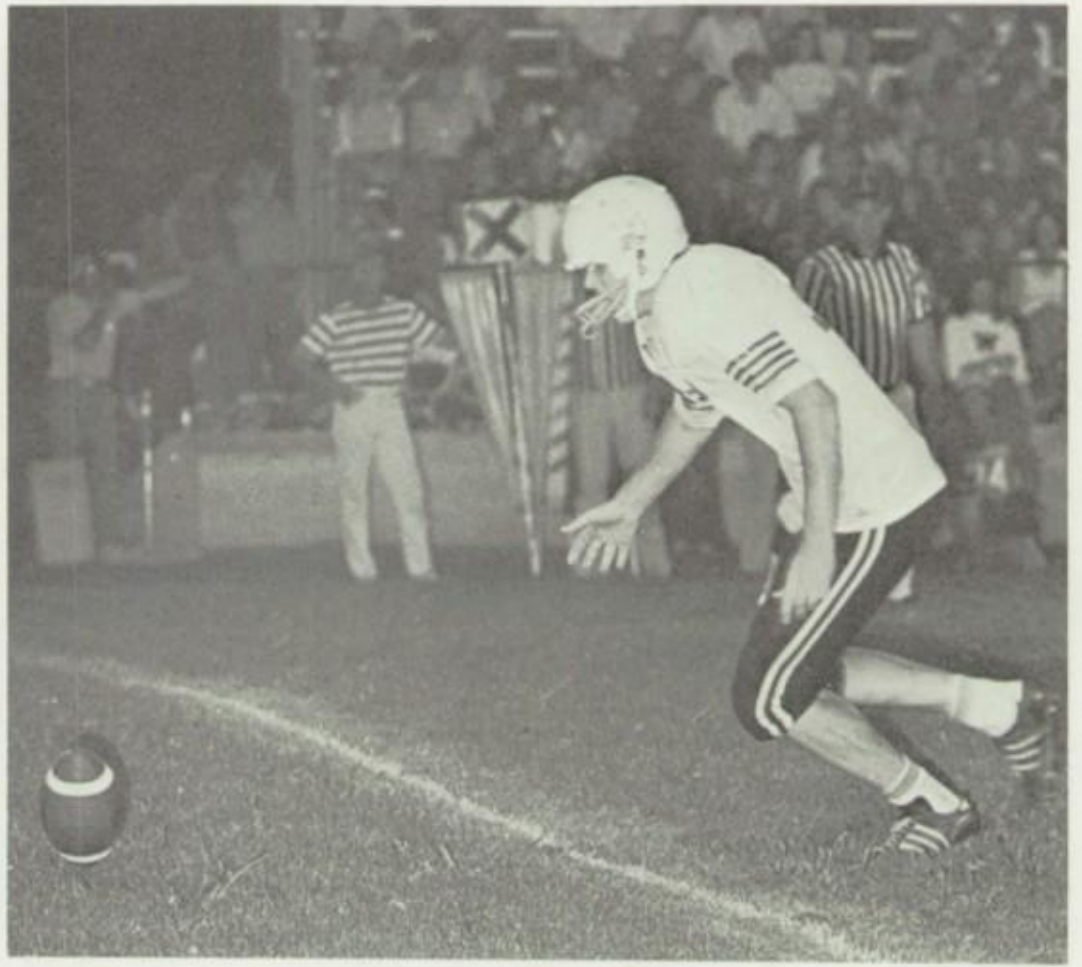

We wish our football team the best of luck.

What they didn't win this year, they will make up in the years to come.

The Whitko High School baseball team for the spring season of 1974 had a schedule consisting of 24 games with some of the finest teams in the area. This schedule was designed in preparation for the state tournament which was to begin the last week of play. After a total of 18 games, the Wildcats had posted a fine 15-3 record, with but one week remaining on the schedule. The coaches of this year's team are Jim Irwin and Tom Dilling.

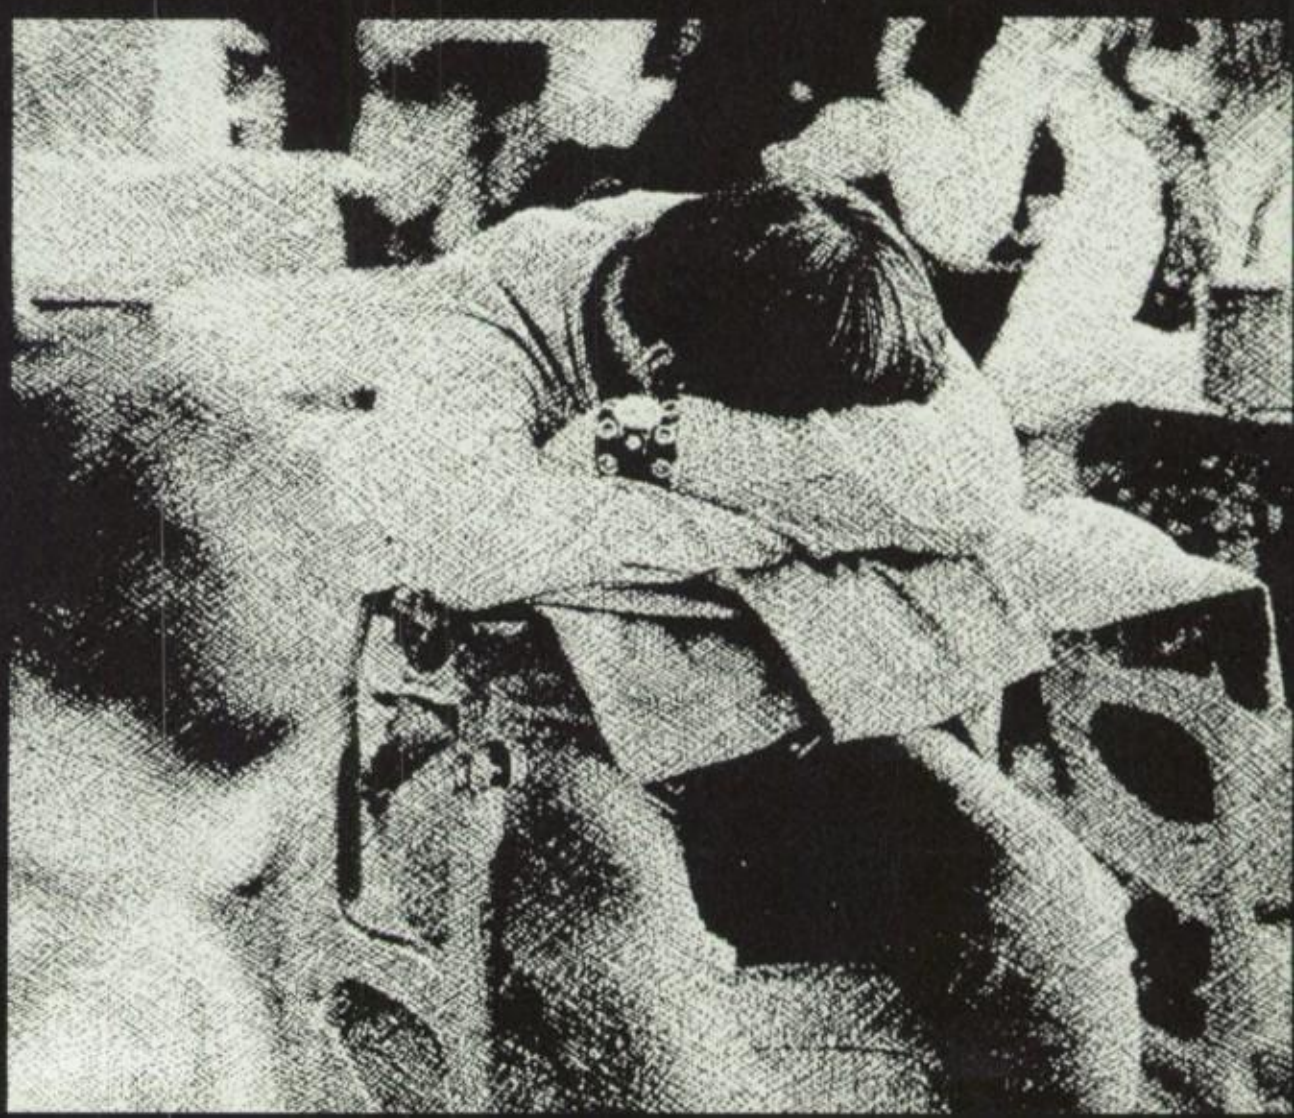

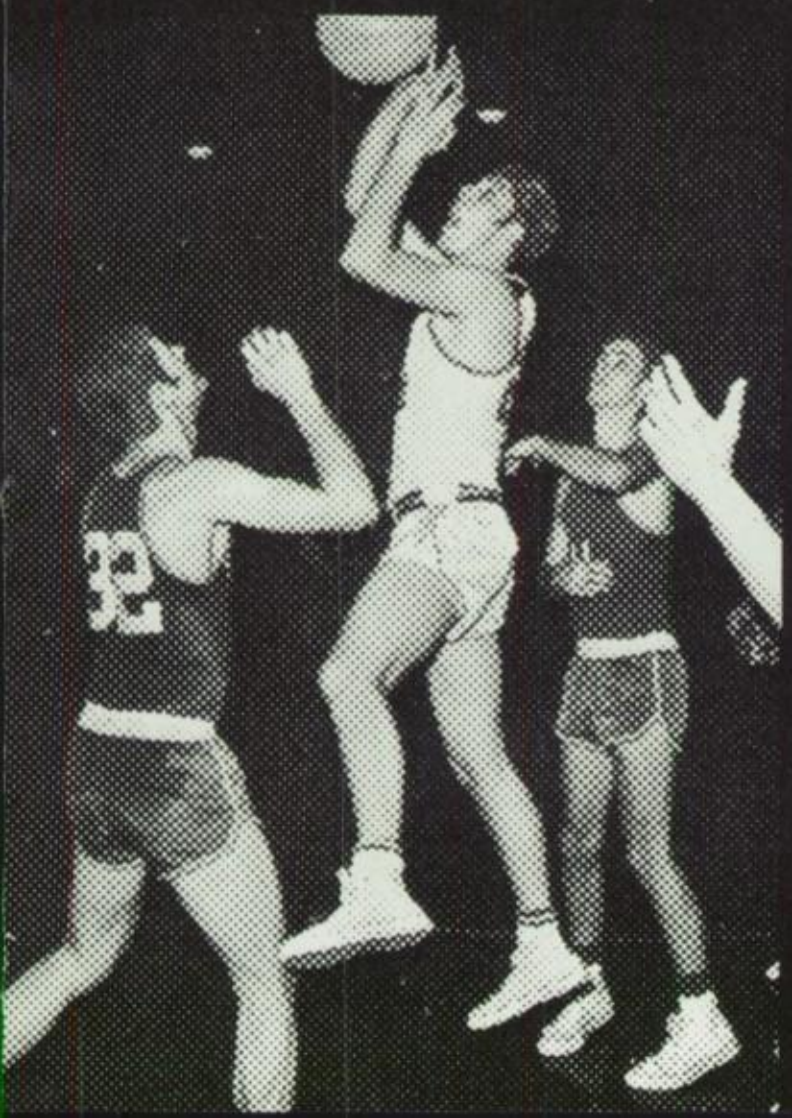

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epic of belief, it was the epic of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to heaven, we were all going direct the other way . . .
